

Planning a Football Trip to 2019 Inter Games tournament

Planning a Football Trip for June, there is limited choice as most of the European leagues will have finished. One option is the Inter Games tournament which will take place on the island of Anglesey. This post has all the details.

The draw has been made for the 2019 Inter Games tournament in Anglesey, which is being staged because football is not on the schedule for the NatWest International Island Games in Gibraltar.

The tournament takes place between 15-22 June, three weeks before the Island Games.

There will be ten teams contesting the men's tournament and five competing in the women's equivalent, with the draw for groups in the men's tournament to be conducted this Sunday (in partnership with the Football Association of Wales).

Ynys Môn, Isle of Man, Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Shetland, Western Isles, Orkney, St Helena and Hitra will compete in the men's category and Ynys Môn, Isle of Man, Jersey, Western Isles and Hitra in the women's.
